

Class-3

Social-Studies

Chapter-8(Term-2)

Early Humans

Oral Questions-

1.Where did early Humans live?

Ans.Early humans lived in jungles.

2.How did they protect themselves from heat and cold?

Ans.They protected themselves from heat and cold by covering their body with the skins of animals .

Tick (✓) the correct answers –

1.What is true about early Humans?

- (a) They lived in jungles.(.)
- (b)They were food-gatherers.(.)
- (c)They had tools made of stones.(.)
- (d)All of these (✓)

2.What were the two earliest occupations of early Humans?

- (a)farming and rearing of animals.(.✓)
 - (b) agriculture and planting (.)
 - (c)cooking and washing clothes .(.)
 - (d)All of these (.)
-

A.Multiple Choice Questions-

1.Why did early Humans need sharp tools?

- (a)to dig out roots from the soil(.✓)
- (b)to eat food (.)
- (c) to perform surgery(.)
- (d)none of these.(.)

2.Where did early humans first see fire?

- (a)natural fire in jungles(✓)

(b)fire in stove (.)

(c)coal fire (.)

(d) none of these(.)

3.Early humans tied together logs of woods and made?

(a)sleges (.)

(b)Rafts(✓)

(c)fire (.)

(d)tools(.)

B.Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements –

1.Early humans lived in flats.(. F)

2.Early humans learned to tie sharp stones to wooden sticks to hit wild animals.(T)

3.Early humans covered their body with the skins of animals to keep themselves healthy .(F)

4.Early humans made fire by rubbing two leaves together.(F)

5.Early humans rolled a log to discover the wheel.(T)

C.Write short notes –

1.How did the early humans protect themselves from heat and cold?

Ans.The Early humans protected themselves from heat and cold by covering their body with the skins of animals .

2.Write one method by which fire could be made.

Ans.One method by which fire could be made was rubbing two stones together .

3.Name the first metals to be discovered.

Ans.Copper and iron were the first metals to be discovered .

D.Answer the following questions-

1.How did early humans improve their tools ?

Ans.Early humans improved their tools by tieing sharp stones to wooden sticks to hit animals from a distance and to protect themselves from getting injured.

2.How was the fire discovered by early humans ?How did they use it?

Ans.Early humans discovered the fire by rubbing two stones together.They begun to use fire for warmth ,to scare away animals and to light up their caves.

3.How did early humans become food producers?

Ans.Early humans began to plant seeds on soft land .This planting of seeds made them food producers .

4.How did the discovery of wheel help the early humans?

Ans.Early humans when fitted the wheels to carts ,made movement very easy .

5.Early humans worked hard and invented many things that have made our lives easy and comfortable .Do you think hard work is important.Why /why not?

Ans.Yes ,Hardwork is very important to succeed in life.Without Hardwork,we cannot gain anything in life.
